Your responsibilities as an exhibitor:

Each participant is responsible for preparing, exhibiting, set up and take down of their work. You need to bring your own display tables and display tents. Artists and practitioners are responsible for keeping the area free from debris. Safety of the artists, practitioners and patrons is paramount. There is no early breakdown nor early set up. Our patrons expect to see the show as advertised for the full length of the event. It is courteous to both them and the others present to be available for the whole show.

You are responsible to collect all sales taxes – tax rate is 5.5%. The show is located in Marquette County. There is no commission on sales. This is a smoke free – drug free environment. Please remember to bring your business literature, portfolio of custom work, and your work in process.

Green Sacred Earth Day:

We provide press releases to local newspapers, place posters locally and will make flyers available for distribution by you should you request them. Your local paper does not allow us to utilize a press release. Get the word out in your local paper contact Sue Johnson at suejking@centurytel.net or 920-210-1791 to receive the press release copy. You need to be part of this event's promotion package. Use your local paper and request flyers from us to post in your area. Our Press releases typically are issued to Marquette County Tribune, Waushara Argus and Berlin Journal Newspapers.

We will have a “security” presence Saturday night and it is suggested that you remove your product to secure it. We are not responsible for loss or damage.

No refunds if accepted.

Please sign the release below:

I agree to assume full responsibility for my work and will abide by the regulations of the show. I will not hold Nelson and Pade Inc. nor Two Friends Healing Arts, llc and its members responsible for any loss, theft, damage or physical injury during my participation in Green Sacred Earth Day.
